

Denmark-Japan Joint Workshop
Rethinking Religious Diversity in Japan

24 October 2015 (Sat)
Nanzan Institute for Religion and Culture

- 10:00-10:10 Opening (Okuyama & Borup)
- 10:10-10:55 Lene Kühle (Aarhus University): “Religious diversity: expanding the geographical focus beyond the west”
- 11:00-11:45 Jørn Borup (Aarhus University): “Researching religious diversity: from Japan to Denmark”
- 11:45-13:15 Lunch Break
- 13:15-14:00 Marianne Q. Fibiger (Aarhus University): “Religious diversity in India from a European perspective”
- 14:05-14:50 Okuyama Michiaki (Nanzan Institute for Religion and Culture): “Some characteristics of statistics on religious affiliation in Japan”
- Break
- 15:10-15:55 Kobayashi Naoko (Aichi Gakuin University): “Japanese folk religion and methodological issues”
- 16:00-16:45 Murayama Yumi (Nanzan Institute for Religion and Culture): “Japanese Christianity among the Japanese religious diversity”
- Break
- 17:00-17:30 Comments among the Panelists
- 17:30-18:30 General Discussion

